TRIER TO AMSTERDAM – 5 DAYS / 4 NIGHTS

MOSELLE

Some cruises just don't need a lot of time to make a big impression! Begin on the Moselle River in Germany's oldest city, Trier, where evidence abounds of the Roman Empire's one-time presence and influence. See vestiges of their architectural accomplishments and the very vines they planted that today are flourishing vineyards. Then, visit Cochem, where the area's unique red Moselle vineyard peaches will leave your tastebuds shouting for more, and Cologne, home to one of the world's most magnificent cathedrals. Finally, cross into the Netherlands to the magic that is Amsterdam. You'll quickly discover that its reputation as the show-stopping Venice of the North is well deserved.
